Bosch Rexroth gewinnt den HERMES AWARD 2023

Das Unternehmen Bosch Rexroth wurde im Rahmen der feierlichen Eröffnung der HANNOVER MESSE mit dem renommierten Industriepreis HERMES AWARD ausgezeichnet. Die Übergabe erfolgte durch Bettina Stark-Watzinger, Bundesministerin für Bildung und Forschung, im Beisein von Bundeskanzler Olaf Scholz.

In diesem Jahr hat die Jury unter dem Vorsitz von Prof. Dr.-Ing. Reimund Neugebauer, Präsident der Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft, ein Produkt für den dynamischen Robotikmarkt ausgezeichnet. Bei dem nominierten Projekt Smart Flex Effector handelt es sich um ein sensorgestütztes Ausgleichsmodul (Endeffektor) für Roboter mit unabhängiger, präziser

For best connections

A networked and climate-neutral industry is the big trend topic at this year's Hannover Messe. Lapp is showcasing its solutions in the field of cable and connection technology for this purpose. Mechanical and plant engineering is an important core market for the company, where industrial communication and automation are among the biggest challenges. Lapp is showcasing several innovative approaches to industrial transformation: Single pair Ethernet (SPE) is revolutionizing factory networking.
